Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three

“Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three, One lived and died for self; one died for you and me.

The Greek died on a throne; the Jew died on a cross;
One’s life a triumph seemed; the other but a loss.

One led vast armies forth; the other walked alone;
One shed a whole world’s blood; the other gave His own.

One won the world in life and lost it all in death; The other lost His life to win the whole world’s faith.

Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three,

Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three

One died in Babylon; and one on Calvary.

One gained all for self; and one Himself He gave.

One conquered every throne; the other every grave.

The one made himself God; the God made Himself less; The one lived but to blast, the other but to bless.

When died the Greek, forever fell his throne of swords; But Jesus died to live forever Lord of lords.

Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three,

Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three

The Greek made all men slaves; the Jew made all men free.
One built a throne on blood; the other on love,
The one was born of earth; the other from above;
One won all this earth, to lose all earth and heaven; The other gave up all, that all to Him be given.
The Greek forever died; the Jew forever lives. He loses all who gets, and wins all things who gives.”
